

RSE curriculum tool

Embedding road safety education in early childhood curriculum

Work together to identify opportunities for embedding key road safety messages into the program

In routines

(transitions, arriving and leaving)

In collaboration with families

(on enrolment, arriving and leaving, through parent education)

In everyday play experiences

(inside, outside, through use of equipment and resources)

Through getting out into the community

(excursions, participation in community life)